I don't want any of my children to think it's normal the way you speak to me. I won't have them grow up and be with someone who shouts at them insults them and tells them to fuck off because that's what they think is okay. I want them to see affection, adoration, respect, calmness and love. You say you love me, you respect me and like me as a person but we don't see it. Emily is asking if we're going to split up because she senses it. Erin senses it when you get irate. I don't hate you and I'll never hate you, I don't even hate Joe. I'm not capable of hate it solves nothing.

10:04

Please don't argue back to that previous message cause it'll just send us back to square one and I'm trying to make a decision

10:05

So answer me two more questions

10:06

I don't think any of them should see how we currently speak to each other. I shouldn't tell you to

I don't think any of them should see how we currently speak to each other. I shouldn't tell you to fuck off in front of the children but it's due to an accumulation of you speaking and treating me like shit. I have things to change and improve on. However if you can't see the same in yourself and are willing to make a change yourself the relationship is over x

10:07 ✓✓

Never mind 10:07

And that's where the problem lies. You can't have any fault or responsibility on the path this relationship has taken x

10:08 ✓✓

I asked you not to argue and you couldn't stop yourself 10:12

I would like to make a decision and you're not helping I feel like I'm getting nowhere 10:13

Are you attracted to me

Extremely if you are not wearing make up. I think you're naturally stunning. I could just look at you all day and smile (especially when things are good between us) x

10:14 ✓✓

Do you realise that when things are bad between us, talking to somebody with a dislike of me isn't helpful? Yes or no.

10:15

Yes or no 10:16

Do you mean talking to other people? I don't tend to discuss it anymore to others. It doesn't seem to go down well so I'd answer no

10:16

So no you don't realise that is

Top of my head. I'd say that there could be a way to salvage the relationship but you're too stubborn to put the effort in to fix it. That's not a dig. Throughout this present crisis you have not shown any acknowledgement that you also have to work and change and put effort in. I'm trying with the affection thing but I've not seen any change from you x

Your answer to what's your biggest fear is that I won't fix the relationship

13:43

So your biggest fear is breaking up?

13:43

No that you wouldn't put any effort in fixing it as you just think it is all me and you're completely blame free x

13:43 ✓✓

So your biggest fear is being seen as the bad guy?

13:44

I just hate the thought of not seeing Erin grow everyday and i that's going to happen because you won't put effort in x

She isn't a reason to be in an unhappy marriage

However I really don't think it does. You have ample amount of time but never do. Even simple things like putting your toothbrush back it's inches further than where you leave it. That's just one example.

Can you honestly say you put the same amount of effort into cleaning the house that I do? Can you even say you put 5% of the effort in? I don't chill I clean I don't get to just roll around on the floor with the baby I entertain her whilst cleaning. I don't get to sit down when eating as I'm cleaning. All this just grates on me and I do resent you for it. I can't help that. You want emotion and love and all that but I'm just fuming at the house. I can't control that but that is something you can control. If it was once in a blue moon that's acceptable. But it's daily. Trice daily if I'm off work. I honestly think you believe that you are completely innocent in the breakdown of this marriage however you're a massive catalyst to the degradation of it and you can't see
