Not sure if I've mentioned it. What I did was fucking stupid. I was upset and angry that you wouldn't speak to me. I wasn't thinking clearly my head was all over the place. Don't even know what I wrote to him.

Was just venting my anger. That's not a valid excuse though. What I said was just anger and obviously Sleep down there tonight please. I wanted to stay out to avoid lying at the side of you.

We need to have a proper talk tonight Katie. I'm asking for December to sort this. I'm obviously fearing that you could be doing something tonight that could damage us. I don't know what you're doing you could be out with Ashley or summat but obviously I'm just gonna fear the worse. If you need time out with mates or at the gym I'm obviously gonna carry on babysitting but if it was to do something that can damage our chances I can't. I know that's awful to think that of you and I hate myself for even thinking that's your intention tonight but I know how angry you are at me and my heads not in the best state right now x

It's very uncomfortable this couch.
Even if you was to leave in jan we x

I'll stay out as much as I can

I am not willing to baby sit when I'm trying to sort things out.
Normally I would have no issue baby sitting but if it was too jeopardise our relationship I can't I'm afraid x

Sleep on the couch then I don't think it's too healthy for either of us. I'll stay here until about 10 then I'll come and sleep upstairs. I'll give you as much space as you need until you've cooled down. Give you chance to make a rational decision when you're not so angry. Just let me know if you want to talk x

Stay down there

Take it as a compliment that you can get me so angry at times. I don't get angry. But I love you that much you drive me crazy at times. You've said a lot of hurtful things to me this past week. Yes I deserve a lot for bad mouthing you. But I go insane at times. I fucking love every inch of you. You've accepted many of my flaws. You drive me crazy and although at times that's a negative nobody else can do it.

As you say I'm dead to ya. 22:38

I can't even come and find you as I can't leave the kids x 22:37 //

Katie you know I care and love you to the end of the worlds. Whether we're together or not. I would not want any harm to come to you x 22:37 // arguing with you more than anyone. I'd much rather be cuddling you right now than arguing. I don't have many

 You drive me crazy in both good and bad ways. However how you make me feel in the good way is well worth the few times you drive me crazy in a bad way. I just hope you can say the same about me. I drive you crazy in a bad way can't you see that I can also drive you

The first hint of one of us getting angry speak to each other and sort it out. If you have an assignment and can't sort it out give me a date you can. I will try and leave you until then x
