He will do when I get this non mol.
I need to just uproot like shev did.
I'm done with having men control my life I'm gonna do something for me. And if after a few years of stress free life I want to have a fu king baby I will without fear of losing it due to stress

Well we need to take things day by day. Get this out the road and then we can discuss the none mol. If the school isn't mentioned then he won't need to know. You could say as it's a temp contract can you not just put place of work x

Ugh 1.5 hrs left being a teacher

Well no thats when the meeting starts. Then they'll be like this is the evidence? That's bollocks. Would be better with the police and on the small off chance that it does go badly (I doubt it) then we appeal and get police and Idfa to represent you x

If professionals think I'm emotionally abusive I'm screwed

They won't x

Ugh mal ss have been involved from day one with james it sorsnt look good

But SS have also ruled that there are no concerns x

You need to stop trying to get my Hope's up I'm gonna end up in bits

If I didn't believe it I wouldn't say it. The worst they can say is that you bad mouth stu. It's not true but that's all they can say. That's not enough to be a danger to children. That's why I hoped the police would be there as they could say well she has every right to x

Going into a meeting till 3:30. Let me know when you hear x

Please tell me you've left

Is it really bad news? Can you go back to work x

Basically ss said that I have to speak to school for the outcome as she cant tell me it has to come from her. Before she went in she said she would update me on the outcome so obviously it's bad news

Have you rang her x

Any news x

Shes text to say she wants me to go Tuesday to speak to her

But you don't know about what x

No so its definitely the sack cause she wint say anything

We don't know that. But just in case Sunday I want you to write a massive complaint about the whole situation a lot about Ross and how it was handled which in result has led to this x

We will take legal action x

Told you it would end like this mal. I have absolutely no faith in this system. I can try all I like to be a good person and move on but theres no point. Pricks always win.

This is why we need to complain and then take legal action. Not only for you but others. How many more lives has/will Ross ruin x

It's not their fault stuart is brilliant at lying Hopefully I can go back to uni and retrain as something else. I won't be stuck in a dead end job cause of him

Well hopefully it won't come to that. But your degree will open plenty of jobs x

Like what

Certain roles in the police careers advisor a lot of companies just want a degree to work there. Council stuff c

She's just had about 12.5 oz x

Well I doubt I'll get a role in the police

That's good

I don't think they have enough to say you're a danger to children x

This is such a mess

Whatever happens there will be a light at the end x

The whole stu shit will be over soon x

You've been saying this for two years. There's no end.

But he's said he's gonna give up and hopefully the police will also scare him enough x

You know what this man is like when he's on the defense mal. It'll just get worse. I just really need to move away.

James doesn't want to go and ss said that they will grant his wish.

Tbf he's not even got stus number.

In June we'll get him a new
