James accused me of pushing him over today. I'm so fed up with his accusations. Really getting me down. Sounds bad but...

Why what's he said? Was you even near him x 10:14 ✓✓

They were fighting and I separated them and said go in your room and get dressed. Used barely any force in separating them. Did same with Emily. He tripped over the laundry and said you just pushed me. Honestly give up trying to help him

10:16

He needs serious help. He's more than hard work now and too much energy is being spent on him x
