I've already said I'm keeping her at arms length. My anxiety is through the roof I've not been this bad since Joe got out. I need to surround myself with people who have a positive effect on my life. 10:10

Well why don't you go the doctors for tablets? What's set it off x 10:10

I don't want tablets. I haven't been to the gym in a while so hopefully when I go tomorrow it will be the start of feeling better. 10:11

They can help though. Don't need to take them but get them just in case. Also get the antibiotics as if you have an infection you need to stop that progressing x 10:12

Mal it's taking everything in me to go to fucking asda just leave it. I don't want tablets and you can't change that. Try just supporting me. 10:13
