I might do on Wednesday

10:12 He wants a baby brother too

10:12 You'll have to start wearing baggy undies

10:13 And eating bananas

10:13 It would make my life easier if you could x

10:15 I eat bananas anyway x

10:15 If I could wear baggy undies?

10:15 If we split up would you still see Emily do you think?

10:16 Depends on the situation x

10:17 I don't think you'd let me x

10:17 If she really wanted to I'd let her come round for a few hours

10:17 We should chat tonight

10:28

I literally have no control over my temper atm. I'm angry at everything. I'm not myself at all.

10:25 //

It's just the vibes I've got off you the past few weeks. Nothing I can do is right and you are just so angry at me seems like you hate me. If I'm wrong I'm sorry but that is how it looks on my end x

10:22

What that I wanna talk? That's a good thing. I didn't even want to talk before.

10:20 //

Just the vibes I'm getting plus added with what you've just said x

10:19

What?

10:18 //

Well this adds me to think you want to end the relationship x

10:18

Whilst you've not got footy

10:18

We should chat tonight

13 Mar 2017 10:17

is how it looks on my end x 10:25 // 13 Mar 2017

I literally have no control over my temper atm. I'm angry at everything. I'm not myself at all.

10:28

Just save it till tonight 10:28

Righto. Can't deny it's been a tough few weeks x

10:31 //

Not just for you. Need to understand its been months for me.

10:32

Well I can't help if you don't tell me x

10:32 //

Time we ended the stress once and for all

10:33

What does that mean x

10:33 //

Well there's no point just carrying on like everything's fine when it's not. We need to actually find a solution. Nothing has changed in this time we're both still miserable.

10:34

this time we're both still miserable.

13 Mar 2017 10:34

No point carrying on being miserable.

10:34

Well there's no point suffering in silence. If I don't know I can't help

x

10:37 //

That's why I told you

10:48

That's why I want to talk

10:48

If it's the sex thing you've not wanted me to touch you in over a week x

10:50 //

What are you talking about now

10:51

I'm well aware we haven't been near each other. All I've said is we should talk tonight.

10:52

You said the other week that it's the sex that makes you not want to be with me. We did two things and you seemed happy with it. But then seemed disgusted in me

since. So I'm confused. Is there

more than just the sex v

I feel like I'm glad I spoke to you because I think you've been a tonne better with the kids but I don't think the affection stuff can

10:57

Together with my feelings and stress made me want to leave

10:56

sex

I listed a few things that were making me unhappy. Not just the

The other stuff was securities which I think I solved x

You did you said I was that bad you want to punch me and you wanted to leave me cos of it x

10:54

I never said sex makes me not want to be with you

I feel like I'm glad I spoke to you because I think you've been a tonne better with the kids but I don't think the affection stuff can be solved atm as I'm not in the frame of mind.

I'm not disgusted in you at all. I'm severely depressed and stressed. There's a difference I wanted to save this for tonight were both busy atm

Well I had a word with James since then he's been much better. Can't say I've not always been great with Emily. I just think you're taking out all your stress out on me x

Course I am. 11:01

I don't mean to but of course I do. And because I'm so depressed I don't give a shit what the outcome of that is. I'm rash anyway but right now if you were to start I would be out the door before you blink.

That's why I keep warning you how angry I am. I'm not myself right

11:11 //

I don't think texts convey ton

11:11

Just then you went off on one

11:11 //

As long as I'm awake it's fine x

11:10

Right well just say that instead of going off on one when I say I want to talk

11:07 //

Well as Always I'm willing to listen and help you however I can x

11:04

I don't mean to but of course I do. And because I'm so depressed I don't give a shit what the outcome of that is. I'm rash anyway but right now if you were to start I would be out the door before you blink. That's why I keep warning you how angry I am. I'm not myself right now but I finally feel like I can actually verbalise how I feel without exploding.

13 Mar 2017

Course I am.

tomorrow. It usually back end of loads and I'm speaking to the doc

Well that's why I want to try getting more sleep. I don't get

I don't know what will happen. I want to get better and sort us out get married and have a baby. I'm broody as fuck atm, if I weren't in this situation we would probably be trying right now I'm that broody. But you can hardly survive your journey home from work so it's not the ideal scenario so it's a good job really

11:21

All I said it sounded that way piled on with what I felt off your vibes and that fact you'd just asked would I still see Emily if we broke up x

11:13

All I said is I want to speak

11:12

You were presuming I was ending the relationship

11:12

I don't think texts convey tone x
