

Well I'll need to know what it is so Well if things aren't sorted you can go with someone else. However it's none refundable. As for the table it was hard getting a booking. I had to ring a few times and finally get a manager to ring me back so we might as well keep that for later. I said I'd pay for your hair so you can keep that. I hold no hard feelings towards you and I don't think it's too out of order to treat the mother of my child on her bday x

I appreciate the effort you have gone to with the gifts from the kids for my birthday. But save yourself the money and cancel whatever the 24th is. You can have this money back as I already had my hair done yday. I really don't fancy it and it might be an idea to cancel the table tonight. I really don't fancy it and your best saving the money. Thanks for trying but I just don't want any of it.

Is it a private one? Thought out

Thanks but I really don't want you spending any more money on me. I've got my scan in a bit so I'll be having a late lunch anyway x

Fine then I'll drop you off and pay then I'll leave.

It's my birthday and I never ask for any special treatment on my day but this once please listen to what I want. I want nothing less than to sit with you pretending to be okay.

Just please be ready for 5:45 the kids would like you there. I'd imagine Beth or heather will be up for it. But I'll inform whichever one you choose later to the date. However until then it's a secret. Moreover if we're fine by then I'll take you x

Well I'll need to know what it is so I can invite someone. You take the kids tonight I really don't want to go. I never said you were out of order for the gifts.

Come and get these dogs please I'm in pain and they're all over me

Done. Anything I can do for the pain

Taken everything I'm allowed

Is there anything I can do

Don't pretend to be arsed

I'm not the one who's stopped talking to you. Franks well being is my main concern. That means you are as well as you are connected

The first sentence makes no sense. Carry on watching your tv program whilst convincing yourself you are concerned.

You've wanted to stay away from me. That's what I am doing. The first sentence was trying to explain you've stopped talking to me not the other way round. Is there anything I can do to relieve the pain

me not the other way round, is there anything I can do to relieve the pain

Does it make you feel like a good dad texting me from the living room to see if you're needed whilst I have contractions?

Well as you haven't spoken to me for a week and a half I wouldn't have a fucking clue what's going on with you, I've asked enough times. You've not replied.

Before I found out I need to be sure you completely agree with me that the sex should stay between us nobody else

That's not how an open relationship works

I'm not telling you then

All clothes on the couch have had to go back in wash as they stink of damp. Most still wet.

That might be my fault then. I did take them off the maiden today they seemed dry. Left a good few on the maiden as still wet x

Might be?
