

Well just give my night a chance you will like it z

I'm gonna go out by myself

Hopefully what I have planned later will help x

I'm asking how you are feeling. X

Nothing to say to that that wont start an argument so best you just leave me alone

How are you feeling x

It was two side not one. Hence me saying let's drop it and move on x

That's a really shitty apology

Ok write this morning off.
Obviously emotions are high on both sides. I have what I think is a good plan for tonight. So I'll be home ASAP x

Sorry for this morning. Probably not the best day to argue. It's not an easy day for either of us Tbf. You was being hard work and I snapped. I shouldn't have. Obviously your emotions are high and I should have taken that into consideration. I have planned something tonight for us. I would like it if you attended x

10:37

I don't fancy spending time with you today after this morning sorry I don't have to be pushed to do something that will harm my mental health
