What time you leaving x 06:00 ✓✓

Have you lost a pair of black jlab ear buds 06:01

Just found them near the bin are they supposed to be in the bin 06:02

Nope. You have. Have you found them x 06:02 ✓✓

? 06:02

So you dont want them binning 06:03

I loaned you them months ago now. When I woke up you didn't know where they were. I had to buy more last week. But if you have found them it's still better than them being lost x 06:04 ✓✓

You're going to leave an hour ago?

16:17

Has she settled x

16:21 ✓✓

Yeah almost instantly. She just knows she gets a reaction out of you. It'll get flagged as an unhealthy attachment soon if she doesn't chill out x

16:22

There's nowt I can do about that though. We're just bffs 🤝

16:24 ✓✓

You can stop making her believe she pulls the shots

16:24 ✓✓

She's going to cause so much stress for us she's going to be a nightmare when she's older like really bad

16:25

I think it already is x

16:27 ✓✓

This is nothing. It just gets worse.

16:28

I think a lot of damage has been done. Not saying it's the only reason but I do think Erin being so hard work has had an impact on our relationship. I think it's part of the reason you have pushed me away in the past few years x

17:02 ✓✓

You still going 17:30 class x

17:02 ✓✓

Yes I'm waiting for you at the door

17:03

She's always been hard. It was hard breastfeeding her but

She's always been hard. It was hard breastfeeding her but everything was fine until late April 2020

17:05

What happened then x 17:06 ✓✓

A number have things have happened over the 2 years. But it takes hard work to get back to where we were mentally for me. I feel like I almost get us back on track and then something else happens. I felt good about us recently then a couple of things happened and it just chips away at all the progress

17:08

What's happened recently? X

17:09 ✓✓

Just a couple of little things I'm sure you're aware and I cba with the argument but I finally almost feel like we're husband and wife again and then something happens

Just a couple of little things I'm sure you're aware and I cba with the argument but I finally almost feel like we're husband and wife again and then something happens and we drift back apart. It's like the universe or you don't want us to work

17:11

It doesn't help that you don't speak to me x

17:11 ✓✓

Because I cba with your attitude or an argument or you just insulting me

17:11

I feel like I do put a lot of work and you just push me away x

17:11 ✓✓

But I do tell you think a discussion is an argument x

17:12 ✓✓

No I think we've both been putting in the work recently but then you pushed me away

I've not said it's so wrong I said little things that have pushed me away 17:13

We do need to get this sorted before we sort the house out. I cba throwing all that money away if it doesn't work out x 17:13 ✓✓

Example please x 17:14 ✓✓

I understand but u don't need the stress when I'm trying to concentrate on work 17:14

If you don't want to go ahead I get it that's fine 17:14

How long will you be 17:14

If we're gonna last I do if we're not I don't. But I just need some commitment from you x 17:15 ✓✓

I'm on my way x 17:15 ✓✓

What more do you fuckig want 🤔🤔🤔🤔 17:16

For a start putting a wedding ring on would give me some indication x 17:16 ✓✓

Like I say that is a big deal to me and when I feel like I'm almost ready you set me back. If a ring is the only thing that bothers you then that's a bit fickle 17:17

18:24

5G 86

< 8  Katie Kelly

then that's a bit tickle

17:17

25 Aug 2022

No but it is a start. You have admitted you have commitment issues. I also don't think you can see when you're in the wrong some times. I feel like a small argument

17:19 ✓✓

You need to remember that I didn't just wake up one day and decide I didn't want to wear a ring. I didn't just wake up and decide to look for a house elsewhere without you. This sequence of events started with your actions and your words.

17:19

You

No but it is a start. You have admitted you have commitment issues. I also don't think you can see when you're in the wrong so...

You feel like having a small argument? You really are a bit strange. If you are stressed put over what happened the other night please stop taking it out on me. I'm not getting involved in this and you need to stop texting and driving
