Yea a little. Gonna have another word later she's eating and I'm trying to feed Erin. She can't take it on board just saying well James ran across the road as well. Had to tell her five or possibly more times on the walk off her phone. Both can't not be on it x

He didn't and she didn't just take one step it was 3 steps according to John x

I'm not saying she's telling the truth. I said to her I don't care as the taxi didn't slam on for him. She has been told if I see her moving whilst her phone is unlocked she will lose it x
