I've not fallen out with you I've just said I don't expect to be spoken to like that by your sister. I've enough on my plate too. You're dealing with an injury yes, I've had plenty off the same bloke but everything is falling to pieces around me and my kids and I don't think it's the end. Think 2018 will be shite and I want to do right by my kids 11:33 //

Right that's fine. I will speak to Mairead. But I always have your situation at least to should Dave be in their life. So we will have an awesome 2018 we just need to steer it that way x 11:34 //

My kids family is falling apart and you want me to marry into one that speaks to me like that. They make no effort with me or the kids but if we had a baby they'll be all over it and I've got to take that into consideration as it's so unfair on my children.

11:36

I can't be having stress at my wedding.

11:36

Right well there's only Mairad that you don't like the rest are sound with you. Tbt you're correct they don't see you or the kids. However they also don't see me. They have seen the kids as much as they've seen me. If we had a kid they would also see the kid as much as

Emily and James x

Must have lost more blood than I

I don't dislike anyone so don't twist my words. You make arrangements with mairiad all the time and it's not been a week since you last saw her alone.

11:38

Well I'm just assuming you don't like her. I would love you two to be good mates. You're two very important people to me but you don't seem to gel with each other which I hate. It's not your fault not hers it's both of you. No sides taken there. Also I saw her at the pub which kids aren't allowed. I don't see her 1% of what I use to. I would love you both to be mates. That would make me happy. If that means you have to be the bigger person what does it matter if you know it would make me over the moon z

11:43

I don't like being spoken to like that. You're telling me to make the effort because you can't tell her

11:46

Emily is hysterical cause I told her

31 Dec 2017

11:46

Emily is hysterical cause I told her

you're at the hospital

11:46

I've told her but no one seems to care what I want. No one is willing to be the bigger man for my sake so therefore I get stuck in the middle of the two people I love x

11:47 //

Why've you told her I'm here. Just say I'm busting Betsy x

11:47 //

I always make effort when I see her but this is what comes of you hitching about me to people

Well I don't bitch to her about you. I don't tend to bitch unless I'm fuming and I've said I won't do that again x sure James could do it if you ask
