Need to get Stu round and discuss 17:1

Been thinking. Need to ask him again where I hit see if he changes his story. Ask him to reenact it see if it's even possible how he acts it out. I've been proper thinking and can't think of anyway I could even have accidentally caught him. I had an Asda bag with a bag of crisps and then pink bars in but how I could have caught him with that I don't know. Then there's my laptop bag but again how I could have caught him I don't see how x

I can't see you x 08:20

I don't know. I see some aspects of that but I do think I'm quiet fair with both of them and punish them the same if they do wrong. I just have more time with Emily as he

15:14 see how it's gone him. Meeting again in 3 weeks to week but he won't know they're for They've set up clubs starting this 15:13 family and feel close to you x show he wants to be part of this and they said that just goes to he didn't want to stay at his dad's feels part of the family. I told them time with us this weekend and it's because he's had such a good school and smiling and they think time he's been genuinely happy in bond. They said today is the first 1 night a week just for you 2 to you. So they want you to set aside close you are compared to him and treats Emily in school and how relationship with you by the way he They think he is jealous of Emily's senco and head about James. Just had the meeting with the

On way whv x

When you home x 16:21

Right o. You want to come as well?
You could sweep a bit of the glass up. Think that's how blue hurt his paw. I can help after x 15:36

He wants come for a jog with you when you're home x 15:34

I think he needs to go WYZ tomorrow x 15:17

I don't know. I see some aspects of that but I do think I'm quiet fair with both of them and punish them the same if they do wrong. I just have more time with Emily as he goes to his dad. I can try that idea but I think he'd be happy with that until he's told off and it goes back to square one. It's not like I don't do things with him. I take him to play and watch football but I think he forgets that very easily as I will tell him off but Stu would never tell him off x 15:17
