I apologised about that and another reason why I'm furious with Emily. She had no reason to lie but had to lie. She is another reason why I am so angry. She's really testing me x

Need to proper drag the kids up to the age they should be acting. It's beyond a joke. James personally is a million times better than he was. He's a nice lad he's just fucking lazy now. Emily is spiralling out of control. The moment Caitlin isn't here she's spending the full day on the step x

19:37 ✓✓

That's a bit pointless. I'd rather her spend the full day working

19:39

You'd have to spend the full day making her do stuff which would be draining but being fucking bored off your tits is so much more of a punishment c

19:43 ✓✓

Well I will give her the choice but I would rather her be useful

19:45

Can you get me a covid test please

19:45

Can you tell them chill out before we're dealing with a broken leg
