09:38

Icarus's app is at 8am I'll need to leave about 6:30am to take her to your mums

09:39

I know. Can we request anything to help him sleep. I'd stress that we have high status job roles and we need sleep. This just can't

I know. Can we request anything to help him sleep. I'd stress that we have high status job roles and we need sleep. This just can't continue for 6 weeks min. Especially with Erin being poorly too. It means even if you sleep upstairs you won't sleep

09:40

There's been no break on the nights we are meant to be resting

09:41

I am going to request some stronger meds. I think he's in pain. He needs something more

09:43

Explain that them not noticing the fleas has caused such an issue for us as he's been itching and can't scratch

09:44

That for me is worse than the pain

09:44

I'm fuming with them

09:44

I noticed it straight away so how have they not

I mentioned to Hamish but it could be on that harness or summat. Might not have been on him long.

09:45 ✓✓

I'll see what I can get him tomorrow 09:46 ✓✓

He doesn't seem to like to be on his left (well he is on it now) but often cries when he is 09:47 ✓✓

Something really needs to be done, it's not sustainable. 10:22
